Champion '56

FOREWORD

We, the yearbook staff, wish to introduce to you the 1956 CHAMPION in which we have tried to give you a story in type and picture of our senior year.

We take occasion at this time to thank the persons who have made this yearbook possible. We wish to thank Miss Ellis, the staff adviser; Mr. Ray, Mr. Johnson, and all the teachers, students, business men, and patrons who have helped in some way to make the CHAMPION a success. We also want to thank Mr. Knox who did the photography and the American Yearbook Company who did the lithography.

We sincerely hope that this yearbook has successfully recorded all the pleasant memories we have shared at Reynoldsville-Winslow High School.

DEDICATION

To those people whose honor, dedication, and self-sacrifice have promoted our lives thus far we dedicate this 1956 CHAMPION, our PARENTS.

We take this opportunity to recognize our parents for all the things they have done so that we might be blessed with many privileges.

Our thanks also for the time and effort exerted by our parents teaching us the moral and religious beliefs upon which we have based our character. Under their supervision we have developed into well-rounded American citizens who will try our best to live up to the example set by them.

Words alone cannot express the gratitude felt by each of us for our parents' unfailing devotion and help. We feel that, in dedicating this yearbook to you, we have found a small way to say thanks for everything.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education consists of a group of interested men who work together to better the policies of the school. They give freely of their time and talent to operate the work of the school smoothly.

R.W.H.S. has had in the past and continues to have a group of capable and efficient school directors. They are guided by Christian ideals and a sound understanding of the practical affairs of life. For that reason our school has progressed and will continue to progress in the years to come. Through their diligence and understanding our school has multiplied and diversified the courses and subjects taught until today we have the democratic training we need to prepare us for a successful life.

We wish at this time to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to these men, who have made it possible for us to get a high school education in preparation for the future.

THE CHAMPION STAFF

This year the yearbook staff was composed of three editors, two business managers, an editorial committee, and a business committee.

Jane Fusco was the editor. She, with her two assistants, Olivia Honadle and Becky Syphrit, supervised the work of the committees and made decisions relative to the book.

Becky Syphrit was the literary editor, and it was her job to plan and prepare all copy for the printer. She was assisted by the literary staff and three typists.

Dale Clontz and Dick Swartz were the business managers. Dale supervised the sale of advertising while Dick managed the sale of subscriptions. These two had the help of the business committee.

The editorial staff and the committees wish to thank Miss Violet Ellis who was our faculty adviser.

AGRICULTURIST MEET

At a recent meeting of the Paradise Grange, President Robert Douthit released the statistics for the past year. The herd of Willis Strouse had the highest rating for butterfat for the Tri-County area. Bob Buhite claimed second place. At the same time it was made public that Don Fye and Arnold Snyder are leading the local Farmers Baseball League.

MEDAL RECEIVED

Major Dale Clontz was the recipient of the Medal for Distinguished Service at a ceremony held May 16 in Australia. Major Clontz has completed his ninth year in the Air Force. Other notables present at the service were: Lieutenants Art Siple and James Smith of the Army; Ensigns Jack Armagost, Tom Deegan, Norm Guthrie, and Rich Toven. Capt. Clyde Marshall of the Foreign Legion had planned to attend, but pressing business detained him in Africa.

MEDICAL CONVENTION

Doctors Vandivort, Means, Shaginaw, and Pharmicist Tom Dinger attended a convention at Pancoast University at which some of the latest discoveries in medicine were discussed. Louie Bogacki reported that Kay Edelblute and Olivia Honadle, former local nurses, have had great success with a new cavity-prevention gum.

Featured at the Sugar Hill Fair will be Ron Jones and Bill Wells, two of America's outstanding motorcyclists. June 1 and 2.

CLOSING HOURS

The local stores have agreed on the closing hours for the summer months. Stores will be open only in the mornings in order that managers and employees will have time for golfing and fishing. This information comes from local merchants Jim Frank and Richard Swartz.

PROMOTION ANNOUNCED

According to a publication of the Mitchell Roman Coal Co. Neal Ishman has been promoted to Vice-President. This promotion came after Mr. Ishman's discovery of a method to convert ashes into sturdy building blocks. This method will reduce the cost considerably from the present type of concrete block.

Senior Play, "RESERVE TWO FOR MURDER"

"Reserve Two for Murder," the play presented by the senior class on April fifth and sixth, was probably the most unusual ever presented in our school.

The play began in the ordinary manner; but before five minutes elapsed, Ron Jones (John Randall) was shot by someone in the audience. Detectives Dale Clontz and Sam Vandivort (Mike Kennedy and Sam Lee) immediately set about solving the crime with the not too able assistance of Patrolman Louis Hiles (Schultz). Soon everyone on stage and several spectators were involved. Included were actresses Teena Fusco (Helen Smith) and Olivia Honadle (Naomi Edwards) as well as Gene Means (Dr. Edwards), writer Tony Nairn (Ivan Strange), and beautician Becky Syphrit (Martha Gregory). Not above suspicion were theater manager Dick Vandervort (William Russell) and usher Judy Stumpf (Sally Lynch). Acting innocent, but very guilty, was art patron Kay Edelblute (Mrs. Thurston-Allen). Comedy was provided by housewife Connie Manco and daughter Nancy Fye who played the parts of Mrs. Inglefritz and Eloise

Assistants and extras included Neal Ishman, Jim Frank, Casey Putnum, Jane Fusco, Ruth Ann Lindsay, Nancy Smith, and Marlene Vizza. The director was Miss Violet M. Ellis.

CHEERLEADERS

SENIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS
Yea! Team! Hold That Line

Yes, you have heard these familiar yells from our cheerleaders. Our group is made up of three seniors, three juniors, and three sophomores. This year we have tried to do our job to the best of our ability. With the help of the student body it is our job to lead our team to victory.

During the summer months we participated in several money making projects so that we would be able to purchase new uniforms.

The cheerleaders' advisor, Mrs. Sweka, is to be complimented on her fine work and patience she has had with our group. We pay tribute to our three seniors who are leaving us. May the fine leadership be carried on.

JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS

All girls and boys in junior high school are eligible to try out for positions as cheerleaders. Interested pupils meet with the present cheerleaders and Miss Marvin for a training period of two to three weeks. At the end of that time eliminations are held to decrease the size of the group. Then for an additional two or three weeks these students work hard for the final eliminations. The teachers make the final selections. The cheerleaders try with all of their might to keep the spirit of the team and student body at top form.

R.W.H.S. COACHING STAFF

The rising interest that the students and townspeople have shown toward sports can be attributed to the championship teams that have been produced by our football coaching staff. Mr. Clarke and his assistants, Mr. Malacarne, Mr. Bracken, and Mr. Ward, have a record of three championship teams in the past four years.

Mr. Clake has done an excellent job in promoting good clean football. Mr. Malacarne can be justly proud of his work in building a strong forward wall.

Mr. Bracken and Mr. Ward deserve much credit for their work with junior high team. Teaching fundamentals to the beginners requires a great deal of patience and stamina. In addition to his duties as football assistant, Mr. Ward is head basketball coach. The success of the football season did not extend to basketball this year, but the prospects for next year are very bright.

MAJORETTES

The majorettes have had a full schedule this year marching for the ten football games and various other parades. Under the able supervision of Mrs. E. Walker Smith, they planned their half-time routines which were very pleasing to the spectators.

Two new majorettes were added this year. They were Kathryn Swigonski and Joyce Toven. Four of the majorettes, Yvonne Aaron, Kay Edelblute, Ruth Ann Lindsay, and Marlene Vizza will be graduated in the spring. The group will miss these girls.

THE DOWNBEATS

The "Downbeats," our high school dance band, is just a new feature of our school life. It has been called on to play for many of the school dances this year. The dance band has made possible many more dances than was possible before because the clubs couldn't afford a union band.

The "Downbeats" consist of Mary Lou Douthit, on trumpet, Sylvia Horm on clarinet, Richard Swartz on tenor saxophone, Paul Miller on trombone, Catherine Scheetz on piano, and Addie Wells on the drums.

The dance band has been very well received by all the students attending the dances. The dance band has an array of old and new songs, polkas and jitterbugs. The "Downbeats" have brought much pleasure to the student body of R.W.H.S.

THE BARKER

Our school newspaper is an example to us in school of freedom of the press. The paper not only gives us a chance to learn of all the latest happenings, but also to make suggestions which may help our school. We have tried this year to make our paper better in many ways. In addition to increased volume, students have been encouraged to write articles. The additional student work has improved our Barker.

This has always proved both entertaining and educational.

During the year several social activities take place such as the Christmas party and a skating party. Each group had a Latin Motto, such as that of Latin II, "Omnibus Placere Non Possumus," meaning "We cannot please all." TRI-HI-Y

PURPOSE. . . .

The purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y Club is: "To create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character."

PLATFORM. . . .

The platform of the Tri-Hi-Y is clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living.

CODE. . . .

To build a better world ready I must be, In the place where life does find me, Holding fast yet pushing on, Into glorious adventure, You and I and God.

PRAYER. . . .

We parise Thee, O God, for our Tri-Hi-Y girls and counsellors. For their desire to be of service in this world, We seek to build. May our love for all Thy creatures, May our spirit of adventure lead us only in the trails once blazed by Thee. For this, give us thy help.

AMEN

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

It is the job of the assembly committees to plan and organize the assemblies for the school year. Assemblies are alternated each Friday afternoon between junior and senior high schools. Most of the programs this year were of the student participation type, although a few were guest programs. The willingness of the student body to participate made our year a success.

JUNIOR HIGH ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE, SEATED: Cynthia Alsbaugh, Judy Lingenfelter, Frances Jones, Miss Ellis, Don Siple. STANDING: Terry Fye, Jane Swab.

A patrol boy must be alert, able to accept the responsibility of his job, and realize that the safety of each child who crosses the street lies in his hands.
